

Restorative Justice Week

November 15 - 22, 2015

EVENTS CALENDAR

You are encouraged to attend these events being held across British Columbia leading up to and throughout Restorative Justice Week

Friday, November 13	Kamloops TRU Restorative Justice Week Symposium For the past several years, TRU students have participated in community-based restorative justice as both participants and volunteers. To build on this connection between the university and the restorative justice community, TRU will host a one-day symposium during restorative justice week. This day will highlight the possibilities for using restorative justice in cases of serious and violent crime. All are welcome and encouraged to attend to learn more about this important movement. Location: Thompson Rivers University, CAC Building, 900 McGill Road, Kamloops Time: 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Contact: See their Event Brite page
------------------------------------	---

Monday, November 16	Burnaby 5th Annual Liz Elliott Memorial Lecture & Presentation of the 2015 SFU Hummingbird Award Description: SFU's School of Criminology is pleased to announce that Howard Sapers, the Correctional Investigator for Canada, will deliver the 5th Annual Liz Elliott Memorial Lecture. The lecture, held during Restorative Justice Week, honours former faculty member Dr. Liz Elliott, who passed away in September of 2011. The Centre for Restorative Justice, in partnership with the John Howard Society, will present the 2015 SFU Hummingbird Award to Shanna Grant-Warmald of Restorative Justice Victoria at the conclusion of the lecture. The event is free of charge. Registration is appreciated but not required. Light refreshments will be served. Location: SFU Theatre (Diamond Family Auditorium) at SFU's Burnaby Campus Time: 1:30 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. Contact: RSVP to crimcomm@sfu.ca
Tuesday, November 17	Vancouver Land-Based Healing & Restorative Practices An evening of information, discussion and thoughtful reflection where three distinguished speakers connect their life experiences to the healing role of Nature and its importance to restoring the relationship we need to have with others and with the world around us. Speakers include Piita Irniq, (Inuk Elder and former Commissioner of Nunavut), Frank Brown (Elder, Bella Bella), Robin Gray (Professor, Ts'msyen, Lax Kw'alaams) Location: Vancouver Public Library - Central, 350 West Georgia Street, Alice MacKay Room Time: Doors open 6:00 p.m. Event 6:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. Contact: http://varj.ca

Thursday,
November
19

Nelson

Nelson Police Department Restorative Justice Program Event

The Nelson Police Department Restorative Justice program will be hosting an event at the Nelson Public Library on Thursday November 19th from 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. in celebration of Restorative Justice Week. This event is open to the public and will include a presentation, a short film, a panel discussion with Q & A period, as well as snacks and beverages.

Location: Nelson Public Library, 602 Stanley Street, Nelson

Time: 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Contact: awerner@nelsonpolice.ca

North Vancouver

SPEAK OUT

TNSRJ's fall SPEAK OUT is fast approaching. The topic will be Sexuality & Identity. The event is free and open to youth and youth supporters. Youth who participate in the event will also receive three hours of community service. Refreshments will be provided. More details can be found on their Facebook page.

Location: Mountainside Secondary School, Multipurpose Room, 3365

Mahon Ave, North Vancouver

Time: 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

Contact: Please RSVP to laurisse@nsrj.ca to confirm your attendance